PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE by Colin McCormick

Welcome to the October 2026 edition of the Morris Gazette. Fall is finally here with the past whole week bringing cooler temps and drier air. Our little carburetors are loving it. Get out and drive!

This month at your meetings and online you are able to vote for officers, board members, and (in a separate ballot) some small tweaks to our bylaws. The best way to cast a ballot is online, and everyone should have received a ballot by email by now. If you cannot find it, you will have the opportunity to vote in person at your monthly meeting. I realize we are in Louisiana, but please vote only once.

Those of us who participated in events of the past month have enjoyed several recent car shows, one at St John's Church in Folsom, at English Motoring Club of Mississippi's Brits on the Bluff in Natchez, and we participated in the Distinguished Gentleman's Drive tour of New Orleans, touring the city in our LBCs. Unfortunately, the Ridgeland Euro Fest was rained out and rescheduled for April of next year.

Coming in the next several weeks we all have the opportunity for more classic British car fun with at the South Alabama British Car Club's show in Fairhope, our November memorial drive, a show at Fort Pike, and the Scottish Highland Games in Gulfport. Watch for emails about these events and other club news.

Our orders of grill badges and collared shirts are in and are being distributed by your coordinator. Your coordinator is taking orders now for more club ball hats, khaki with a maroon bill and lettering. We are quickly converting to a system of paying online for regalia items, which will smooth out that process and keep better track of our money. However, it will impact whether or not we order extras. If you want a regalia item, be sure to pay attention to club emails and at your meetings and place your order.

Enough from me; you can read more details about these and other exciting news in this edition. I'll see you out and about on the road on one of these crisp and clear mornings.

Keep calm and drive on,
Colin McCormick

BMCNO Upcoming Events

SABCC British Car Festival October 17th

The 36th annual show in Fairhope, Alabama this year celebrates the marques no longer with us. It's another favorite weekend for our club, and another great British car show. You will get an email with plans for a Friday drive to Fairhope. Flyer on p. 24. Everything you need to know can be found here: https://sabcc.org/british-car-festival

BMCNO Memorial Rallye Sunday November 1st

An All Saints Day drive with respect to that day's tradition and in keeping with our club's tradition. We'll start at noon in Madisonville and end with lunch in Abita Springs. Look for an email with details as it gets closer.

Fort Pike Festival, Saturday, November 7th

Cannon shots, fort tours a car show and more at Fort Pike State Park, Chef Menteur Highway at the Rigolets bridge. Benefits Fort Pike Volunteer Fire Department. See the flyer on page 25.

Harahan Christmas Parade December 12th at noon.

We have fun decorating our British cars and then roll down Jefferson Highway in Harahan. You can drive a red sleigh, but don't impersonate Santa Claus. He's at the end of the parade. Afterwards we'll roll down to Williams Boulevard to Ground Pat'i for lunch. Our Christmas party will be another day TBD.

Cajun Model Fest 38 October 10th

Man, this was me growing up. Now that I'm retired, I can't seem to clear a space to build my models anymore!

The Baton Rouge "Cajun Model Fest 38" is October 10th at the 4H Mini Barn on LSU's campus. It's being presented by the Baton Rouge Scale Modelers, and it's Louisiana's oldest scale modeling show. This year's theme is "Old Glory" in celebration of our nation's 250th birthday. I plan on entering some of my old models and that ambulance I've been working on. Might be an all-nighter on the 9th with sticky paint...but it will be there!

BMCNO visits St. John's in Folsom Sept. 12th

A few of our Baton Rouge members drove over to Folsom for St. John's annual Knights of Columbus Car Show. Rick Huber in his Austin Healey 3000 led Milton and Annette in their Jaguar XKE, me in the MGB and Jim and Virginia Bruce in their 2008 Mustang GT 500 convertible through the backroads, and I couldn't duplicate the route if my life depended on it! Rick is an ACE navigator. Danny and Randy came up later for a "one tank trip" in either a Jeep or Bronco. I didn't look. A bunch of the Northshore members joined us there to make it 14 British cars in all. A group of hot rodder friends were also there, such as Lyle Kuhlmann, Ray Rupert and Anthony "Chopper" Leone, who used to drive the Candies and Hughes dragster back in the 1960s!

Scenic and historic St. John the Baptist Church in Folsom, Louisiana

The weather was nice and cool, and the British cars got to park under a stand of shade trees. Unfortunately, so did the love bugs, and not the VW kind! I haven't seen that many in one place since the early 1970s when my brother had Fact-O-Bake paint his van baby blue! Apparently, they love light colors and the smell of fresh enamel, which was confirmed when they covered my "Earl of Sheib" painted MGB.

There was a nice crowd that showed up to support the show and the air-conditioned pavilion and bathrooms were very welcome. We enjoyed visiting with all the BMCNO club members and looking at the cars, and as far as I know, no one broke down! Lunch was delicious hamburgers, hot dogs, jambalaya and free snoballs!

It sure turned out to be a beautiful day. The love bugs loved Rick's Austin Healey and so did the judges. He was awarded Best Foreign Car, and a bunch of our club attendees took home some very nice door prizes,

Jim Bruce gave blood at their blood drive, and then the Healey, Jag and MG headed toward BR at a leisurely pace - which suited the 'rubber necking' Roving Reporter just fine! --Roving Reporter

Brits on the Bluff September 19th

A large contingent of British Motoring Club members made the annual trek to Natchez for the English Motoring Club of Mississippi's 29th car show. Over 40 of us came on the backroads and mostly in LBCs on Friday to spend the weekend. Coming from the Northshore, New Orleans and Baton Rouge, our groups converged, to our surprise, at a brand new gas station and convenience store in Gloster, Mississippi.

That was the plan, anyway. The New Orleans group stopped when Lee's Stag needed transmission fluid and they were running a bit late. Then they passed Tom and Chris on the side of the road helping with Benny's Spitfire, which lost a throttle return spring. With that taken care of, we did all manage to make the scenic drive through the Homochitto National Forest to meet some of our Mississippi friends at Roux 61 restaurant in Natchez for a delicious lunch and get-together.

Brits on the Bluff's always laid back and friendly atmosphere started with a Friday evening reception at the Grand Hotel. We celebrated Allen Bradley's birthday with cake and song, and then watched the sunset over the Mississippi River. Many of us stayed at the Grand, so after breakfast together Saturday morning it was a quick drive around the corner from the hotel's parking lot to the show on North Broadway.

After getting the cars as spiffy as possible, folks spent time catching up with each other, visiting the Farmer's Market down the street, talking about our cars, filling out the popular choice ballot, taking photos and having lunch at fun places nearby. The day was a bit warm for the middle of September, but we were able to stay in the shade most of the day and Mr. Keith kept us adequately refreshed.

Many of us picked up a door prize or two and the people's choice cars were recognized with ribbons. Danny Varnado's beautiful baby blue B was voted best of show. Well deserved!

Natchez Malt Shop

Fun weekend with the club in Natchez and good to see everyone there. Milton and Annette, Bobby and Randy, Mary Lynne and I had dinner Saturday night at the Malt Shop. I took a nice picture of our three cars parked in front while we were eating. Then the next day Keith Vezina sent a picture taken from the street. He said some guy that was in Natchez for the Jim Bowie Festival took the picture of us and the three cars from the street and got the Malt Shop in the shot, too. —Rick Huber

Wild in the Streets: An LBC Driver's Guide to Greater New Orleans

by Ed and Ms. Scarlett

Episode 1. Louisiana Red-Light Racing So there you are in your LBC at a neutral ground 4-lane red-light somewhere in the greater NOLA area…next to a 12 foot tall jacked-up pick 'em-up truck. You know the kind, as tall as a semi-trailer (sorta like yachts, with their flying bridges on top of their regular bridges, just so they can be taller than and look down on the lesser yachts). And their oversized wheels so when you look out your LBC's driver's window, you are looking up at the tops of their tires.

I'd just brought the newly purchased Ms. Scarlett down to Louisiana and was driving her to one of the first BMCNO cruises on a NOLA highway when one of those monster pick 'em-ups merged in from a right hand ramp-—and kept merging. It took a second to realize, as he kept coming over, that I was well under his driver's side mirror view, and he didn't know we were down there. Time slowed down as I desperately tried to remember where the horn was on an MGB-GT. Hammered everything on and around the steering column and about the time I remembered where the horn was (end of the wipers stalk*) he heard her loud headers, looked down and made room.

But I digress: The light goes green, and you and the truck both hit….your brakes! And count to three while the cross street drivers in front of you run their red light! Then you hit the gas and see who has the best combination of power, weight and traction.

Mondays and Fridays seem to be the worst for red-light racing. You can sense the level of societal stress and tension in just how fast the pick'em-ups accelerate off the line. That gas pedal seems to be the only thing that their drivers can control in life, so do they ever use it.

Of course the pick'em up drivers also imagine that they'll beat the red light and zoom through the next green. Riiight…in old grid Louisiana cities where the average distance between stop lights is maybe six blocks. And badly timed signals that virtually guarantee stopped red-light traffic never gets through in one light cycle.

It's fun for a block or two. It gets even more interesting when there is a big AmazFedUps delivery van double-parked in the right lane up ahead and we have to decide who's going for the gap. But risk your LBC? No way! He can have the lane. By then he's already looking at the end of that backed-up traffic four blocks ahead. But you, clever LBC driver, didn't take the bait and backed out early. So, while the pick'em-up truck has just wasted a lot of $4+ gas getting his 2+ ton vehicle moving up to 45 m.p.h. in the first half-block, now he's wasting even more $$ wearing out his brake pads trying to slow it down. Sure, he's first to the line in front of the light, but it's expensive therapy, while you thriftily coast your LBC up alongside with a smile.

*It may be the turn signal stalk. Her windshield wipers don't work and I rarely use the horn.

Also why Ms. Scarlet now has a small Union Jack fluttering on her right fender from the top of the tallest radio antenna I could find.

Next month's episode: "Puddle or Pothole?"

Covington's Final Friday
Columbia Street Block Party

Some of the sights at the end of the month celebration. It was a nice enough showing of eye-catching British cars and other beauties. It's the Halloween version on October 30th, always the biggest, and the final Final Friday party of 2026. Decorate your car and pass out candy to the costumed kiddies. Y'all come!

BR Breakfast September 26th

Wow, we are finally getting some good cruising weather! The group at breakfast this morning in Baton Rouge included: Danny V, Larry and Cathy, Charlie, Tom and myself. We talked about the Kelly's clutch problem, the Vicari Auction and the usual other car related stuff. --Roving Reporter

Northshore Cars and Coffee September 26th

Here's more from our BMCNO weekend. A bunch of us rolled our LBCs out early Saturday morning for our Cars and Coffee at Liz's Where Y'at in Mandeville. The parking lot was filled with some beautiful cars. Gerald had his grill badge mounted on his MGA, Matthew and family came in the Mk2 Jag, Dean was in his Bugeye and Bob showed us why his 90-year-old Railton is such a "babe" magnet.

Distinguished Gentleman's Drive

September 27th

The Distinguished Gentleman's Drive in New Orleans was a wonderful time with car friends and a great fundraiser. Every driver raised money to support men's mental health programs and prostate cancer research through the Movember organization's worldwide event.

The gentlemen came ready for a classic car parade in dashing style, with handlebar mustaches, crisp pocket squares, hats and ties and generally a much higher level of dapperness than usual. The ladies also jazzed up the day with timeless and glamourous outfits, filling the City Park meeting place with fun and laughter. Bob and Linda Gordon were selected as Best Dressed Couple.

After a driver's meeting and more photos, we took to the scenic and historic old streets of New Orleans for an hourlong drive, expertly escorted every block by a crew from the St. Bernard Sheriff's Office Motorcycle Division, tooling down Carrolton and St. Charles Avenues, Magazine and Decatur Streets, past Jackson Square, then up Esplanade to Deutches Haus for more mingling, refreshments and lunch.

Thank you to our local hosts Jorge Menes and Christopher Savoy and everyone else involved. Ours was one of 24 drives in the U.S., one of 203 worldwide, and our 36 drivers raised over 15 thousand dollars.

BMCNO Cars and Coffee in Mandeville October 3rd

It was a stormy weekend, so we didn't have our usual collection of British drop-top sports cars. In fact, the Euro Fest show in Ridgeland, Mississippi was cancelled because of the storm threat. Still, we had a good crowd for breakfast and hot coffee at Liz's, Steve ordered the giant pancakes, and Richard K. delighted us by bringing his spectacular Jaguar XK 140. I guess it can go through puddles and still be spotless. —Meandering Muckraker

Milton Franklin

Calling all British Motorcycle Owners

We're getting more people in the club lately with motorcycles and other bikes, and that's exciting. If you come across someone who owns a British motorcycle, invite them to participate in our club. Milton Franklin, Baton Rouge, would like to organize motorcycle events for owners of British Motorcycles. Harley groups are always cruising the roads so we would like to start British motorcycle cruises. We would also like to increase the number of motorcycles at our Annual Car Show. So…Continue to look for British motorcycles to tell them about our club, and give out our business cards or direct them to our website. If you need more please contact Milton Franklin at densalprop@cox.net.
